Hey there, first off means "first of all" right? For example, "first off, my name's James not Jack..." but my question starts here, what would be the continuation for multiple ...

Alarm goes off: "To go off" means "to trip, to start sounding". Something has triggered the alarm, and it went off (started sounding, flashing lights, what not). This is about ...

Your choices (get off work, finish work, leave work) will all work fine finishing the question about a normal working day. I don't see much difference in formality, if any.

MOBIPOWER hybrid clean power containers combine battery energy storage systems with off-grid solar containers for remote industrial sites in Canada & USA.

The system is based on standard shipping containers that carry eight photovoltaic panels, inverters, and energy storage batteries to ...

In BE, "off work" means not working, possibly because of illness, or because you are on leave or have a holiday. Therefore, in BE, your question would make sense.

BoxPower's hybrid microgrid technology combines solar, battery, and backup power into a modular platform designed for remote and resilient energy.

"The company wants to dispose off the equipment." Is this sentence correct. I am confused whether it is dispose of or dispose off as I see a lot of sentences that use dispose off. ...

Yeah. It's not too common though. The two most common formulations are: I get off work at 5. and I get off of work at 5. At least where I live, "get off from" is used, but not as ...

Hello, Does anyone know what is the difference between "once-off" and "one-off" or whether once-off is used across the English-speaking world? Recently an English colleague ...

This is the product of combining collapsible solar panels with a reinforced shipping container to provide a mobile solar power system for off-grid or remote locations.

I am confused about the way to express the time that you are not required to work. Is there any differences in the use of the expressions "day off" and "day leave"? Thanks in ...
